A remarkable feature of this remarkable winter was that tulips had begun to come out of the ground when they were met by the cold snap of today. In the flower garden of Dr. O. H. Hale of Elm street the blades of the tulips had forced themselves out of the ground for nearly an inch, under the influence of the kindly sun, only to be met by the chill of old winter today.

Married for 25 Years.

Winoski, Jan. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Huard fittingly celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their home on upper East Allen street Saturday evening. Fully 100 of their friends and relatives gathered to congratulate them and assist in celebrating the evening.

The party gathered in the evening and enjoyed dancing until midnight, when supper was served, two large cakes, two by three feet in size, occupying prominent positions on the tables. Mr. and Mrs. Huard were married in this village January 27, 1881, and have three children. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful articles, including cut-glass, silverware and furniture.

$10.00 Reward.

Above reward will be paid for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the parties who stole a pen of Plymouth Rocks (11 hens and cock) from my hen house the night of Jan. 24th. A. W. Allen.

BELIEVES HE WAS MURDERED.

J. H. Lord of Shrewsbury Was Buried Without Funeral.

Rutland, Jan. 29.—The man was murdered, in my opinion," declares E. V. Hewitt of Cullingsville in speaking of the sudden death of J. H. Lord of Shrewsbury last Tuesday. One story was that he fell down stairs while intoxicated and sustained fatal injuries to the head. No inquest was held nor was any complaint made. He was buried without a funeral, it is said. One man declared that ugly looking marks were found on the dead man's throat, as if he had been first choked. The death certificate read that death was the result of alcoholism. An inquest may be demanded, but State's Attorney Lawrence has received no request as yet.

Note This!

In Prescriptions We Give the Highest Quality and Charge the Lowest Prices.

Your Physician Gets the Best Results From Prescriptions Filled Here.

There's but one element common to all prescriptions—good and bad—and that's the formula. There are different ways of compounding—the scientific way and the careless way; then different drugs are used—excellent and inferior ones; then there's fancy prices and moderate prices. If there's one department we are justified in calling perfect it's our Prescription Department.

Careful compounding—the freshest and best drugs obtainable—in prices that are not exorbitant, like "so-called" prescription prices. Our volume of business both make the claims possible and prove them to be true.

Bring us your prescriptions and family recipes.

THE ARCH SUPPORT

The arch support of the "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe preserves and accentuates the beautiful lines of the foot and instep.

It strengthens and sustains the over-worked muscles there, thus reducing the fatigue from standing or walking.

It is a feature in the construction of all "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes, yet no extra charge is made on this account.
